Patty Jo Toor, MSN, BA, RN

Vice President Nursing, Chief Nursing Officer
AdventHealth Celebration

Patty Jo Toor has had the privilege of serving as the chief nursing officer at AdventHealth Celebration since 2011. Five years later in 2016, Patty Jo added the role of chief operations officer providing her the opportunity to create a dynamic synergy between the ancillary and clinical teams.

Under Patty Jo's leadership, AdventHealth Celebration became a Baby Friendly hospital and a Magnet recognized hospital demonstrating a commitment to excellence in healthcare.

Although we have experienced challenging times, Patty Jo has a bright point of view and looks forward to the opportunity to be innovative with staffing models and providing nurses the opportunity to work at the highest level of their license. She is married with three children and loves being outdoors.

Student of the Semester

Leslie Chisum-Dauphin

Associate of Science in Medical Office
Administration

Student of the Semester - Online

Online Division Student of the Semester, Leslie Chisum-Dauphin earned a perfect 4.0 grade point average gained through a great deal of focus, hard work and resolve.

Leslie has been described as: "Professional and respectful with all Herzing University staff, faculty and fellow students, she embodies every aspect of the P.R.I.C.E. of success, with communication being her strongest skillset".

Leslie has made many sacrifices demonstrating her compassion and dedication, as she dropped everything a few years ago and moved to Alaska to care for her ailing grandmother. She now volunteers for her son's scout troop, working her way to Cub Master. Professionally, Leslie recently started a new position as a physician scribe/medical assistant at a local ear, nose, and throat practice, and prior to that worked for a private doctor as an administrator.

Leslie plans to pursue a bachelor's degree in Healthcare Management, and looks forward to continue thriving in the medical field.

Student of the Semester

Rachel Zelenski

Associate of Science, Physical Therapist Assistant

Student of the Semester - Orlando

Since she was very young, Rachel loved helping people and knew she wanted to work in healthcare. When she learned about physical therapist assisting, Rachel felt she found the career that matched what she was looking for and a job she could be excited about.

Rachel found school to be challenging and took a non-traditional path of being home-schooled up to when she started college. Her lack of classroom experience posed an additional challenge, but Rachel was resilient and strong throughout her program. She embraced being out of her comfort zone and appreciated how it helped her to grow.

Excited to graduate and realize her goals, Rachel is grateful for the support of her classmates, faculty, family members and for everyone who has helped her become who she is today.

Student of the Semester

Frank Mesa

Bachelor of Science, Nursing

Student of the Semester - Orlando

Frank Mesa grew up in Miami Florida where he graduated from Westland High School. He then attended the University of Central Florida where he would complete his Bachelors in Health Science.

After graduating with his first bachelor's degree, Frank explored many options to further his education and decided to attend Herzing University. While the nursing program at Herzing has proven to be extremely challenging over the years, he appreciates how it has rewarded him with the knowledge, experience, and relationships needed to move his career in healthcare forward.

With a lot of dedication, many hours of studying, and the support from his parents, Frank has worked hard and has been able to start a position in his desired specialty.

Student of the Semester
