Commencement Speaker

Ben Biddick

Armed Services Veteran, Author, Public Speaker, and Healthcare Consultant

After attending the University of Wisconsin, Ben Biddick enlisted in the United States Army following the terror attacks of September 11, 2001. He served as a combat medic and military policeman in Iraq and performed Emergency Management Operations in Wisconsin. Following military service he served as a First Responder. He also served as a Crisis/Hostage Negotiator and has decades of experience serving as a nurse in civilian, military, and correctional healthcare. During the pandemic he performed crisis intervention services in hopes of preventing suicide and acts of mass violence as people grappled with rapid societal change, dehumanization, and political polarization that continues to impede practical solutions to lethal and less than lethal challenges.

Ben co-authored Get Up: The Art of Perseverance with Adam Greenberg, former Chicago Cub and Miami Marlin. They share the powerful history of how Greenberg persevered through the pain and struggle resulting from being struck in the head by a 92 mile-an-hour fastball during the pre-concussion protocol era of Major League Baseball. Drawing from interviews with sports, business, and media legends like Dusty Baker, David Bell, Brad Ausmus, Peter Gammons, David Sampson, Steven Hearn, Coach Mike Fox, and Matt Lauer, Greenberg and Biddick share how some of life's most painful moments can become some of the most positive and powerful.

Today Ben advocates for healthcare equity, develops common-sense approaches for humane medical and mental health care, and creates proactive solutions to societal challenges including dementia care, aging in place, caregiver burnout, violence & suicide prevention. He's an author, public speaker, and consultant who transforms the effects of trauma into power bases of positive change, recovery, and empowerment. He uses his Master's Degree in Performance Improvement and experiences to assist people create a more just and noble America worthy of the honorable men and women who built it and continue to build it every day.
