Herzing University has determined that the BSW program does not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in the states of Alaska, Arizona, Arkansas, Delaware Hawaii, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Kentucky, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Mississippi, Missouri, Nebraska, Nevada, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New Mexico, North Carolina, North Dakota, Ohio, Pennsylvania, South Carolina, South Dakota, Tennessee, Texas, Utah, Virginia, West Virginia, Wisconsin, and Wyoming.

Please refer to the table below for certification and licensure information outlined by state.

Individuals considering the BSW program should be aware that state certification/licensure requirements and eligibility to apply for certification/licensure vary from state to state. While certification/licensure is not a requirement for certain types of jobs, in some states, it may be required for any positions titled 'Social Worker' and to refer to yourself as a Social Worker in professional settings. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Herzing University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credentials, or salary advancement.

Contact information for individual state licensing boards can be found on the Association of Social Work Boards (ASWB) website at www.aswb.org or through an internet search for a licensing board for a particular state. The Association of Social Work Boards (ASWB) is the association of boards that regulate social work. ASWB develops and maintains the social work licensing examination used across the country and is a central resource for information on the legal regulation of social work. Through the association, social work boards can share information and work together. ASWB also is available to help individual social workers and social work students with questions they may have about licensing and the social work examinations.

Herzing's BSW program is in Candidacy status by the Council on Social Work Education's (CSWE) Board of Accreditors (BOA). Students admitted to programs in candidacy status will be retroactively recognized as graduates from a CSWE-BOA accredited program, as long as the program attains initial accreditation. Candidacy is typically a 3-year process. Herzing's BSW Program is currently in year 2 of the 3-year initial process.

If you need additional assistance finding contact information for your state or if you need additional information regarding professional certification/licensure, please email licensurecertification@herzing.edu.
