

Individuals considering the Associate of Science in Medical Assisting Services program should be aware that state certification requirements and eligibility to apply for certification vary from state to state. While certification is not a requirement for certain types of jobs, in some states, it may be required for employment.

Herzing University has determined that our curriculum for the Associate of Science in Medical Assisting Services program meets the educational requirements for certification in the states of South Carolina and Washington.

Herzing University has determined the following states do not currently have certification or registration requirements for employment as a Medical Assistant: Alabama, Alaska, Arizona, Arkansas, California, Colorado, Connecticut, Delaware, Florida, Georgia, Hawaii, Idaho, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Mississippi, Missouri, Montana, Nebraska, Nevada, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New Mexico, New York, North Carolina, North Dakota, Ohio, Oklahoma, Oregon, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, South Dakota, Tennessee, Texas, Utah, Vermont, Virginia, West Virginia, Wisconsin, and Wyoming, Puerto Rico, Virgin Islands, and the District of Columbia.

Please contact and/or visit the respective state board's website to determine whether the program meets requirements for licensure in the state where you are located: <https://www.aama-ntl.org/employers/state-scope-of-practice-laws>.

If you need additional assistance finding contact information for your state or if you need additional information regarding professional certification/licensure, please email licensurecertification@herzing.edu.
